An alien who has been admitted to the U. He does not during the temporary period possess the necessary requisites for initating proceedings for naturalization, and a declaration of intention under those conditions would therefore be null and void.

C oms statistics for August shov sub itial increase in the commerce the rt, as compared with figures of ti. month a year ago. During last month ..rivals here from foreign ports totalled 146, including 129 steamers and 17 schooners. In August 1923, there were 111 steamers and 16 schooners, giving an increase of 19 vessels in favor of this year's total. A falling off in European passenger arrivals at Boston is shown, only 2682 persons landing here from abroad during last month, while 6251 came in the corresponding month last year. There was a gain in the number coming from Nova Scotia and Canada, the total for August 1924, being 13,231, against 10,814 in August 1923.
